

AVIATION MAINTENANCE TECHNOLOGY

Why Aviation Maintenance Technology?

- Learn from industry experts
- Apply practical hands-on experience in a shop environment
- Qualify to test for an FAA Aviation Maintenance Technician Certificate with an Airframe and/or Powerplant (A&P) rating
- EvCC has over 50 years of quality aviation education, located next door to global companies like Boeing and Aviation Technical Services

A Future in Aviation

As an aerospace leader, Washington state needs skilled aviation maintenance technicians.

Boeing forecasts that 610,000 maintenance technicians will be needed to support the global commercial fleet over the next two decades.

Career Prospects*

$68,920 mean salary in Washington

$69,470 mean salary in United States

$36.66 average per hour in Washington

4,630 aircraft mechanic and service technician jobs in Washington.

* Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics, May 2021

Potential Careers

Aviation maintenance technicians, aircraft mechanics and service technicians for commercial airlines, corporate aviation, and private aircraft companies.

2 years full-time
classes (8 quarters)

=

Aviation Maintenance
Technology Certificate

+ 6 classes

=

Associate in Technical Arts (ATA) degree OR Associate of Applied Science (AAS-T) degree

When you pass your course final exams, you qualify to test for the FAA exams for an Airframe and/or Powerplant (A&P) rating, which will allow you to work on aircraft as a qualified mechanic.

Additional Degree Option:

Clover Park Technical College,
Bachelor of Applied Science in Operations
Management

Get Started Today!

EvCC's Aviation Maintenance Technology program accepts a limited number of students each cohort.

Attend a free info session to learn more. Attendance is required for all students.

To sign up, visit EverettCC.edu/Aviation

EvCC's 48,000-square-foot training facility and hangar is located directly across the street from the Paine Field Airport Terminal.

9711 32nd Place, Building C-80
Paine Field, Everett, WA 98204

Everett Community College offers equal opportunity in education and employment. For more information, visit the Equal Opportunity and Title IX website: EverettCC.edu/EqualOpportunity