Study Japanese Language On-Line!

Do you want to learn the Japanese language but can't make it to class for five hours a week? Everett Community College has a great option for you! With funding provided by the US Department of Education and the Japan Foundation Los Angeles, EvCC’s Japanese language and culture studies program has developed online hybrid Japanese language courses!

Our Japanese language instructors Masashi Kato and Peggy Hardt have developed specialized online teaching materials for use in Japanese language teaching and learning.

During Fall Quarter 2016, Japanese language students enrolled in first year JAPN& 122-HY or second year JAPN& 221-HY meet one evening each week at EvCC for a two-hour, face-to-face, 5-credit class. They follow up with online coursework for the rest of the week using interactive language videos that are congruent with their language text and work books.

For more information regarding this new course please contact Masashi Kato by email to mkato@everettcc.edu or by phone at 425-388-9199.

This course, unique to the NBI, has received rave reviews from students.

Students interested in this class should enroll in ART 228D - OL. The class also helps fulfill the EVCC diversity graduation requirement as well as requirements for students working toward the NBI’s Endorsement in US/Japan Intercultural Fundamentals.
