

TIME	EVENT	ATTENDEES	LOCATION
MONDAY 9/13
10:30 – 12 (Repeated on 9/16 PM)	Advising Nuts and Bolts: Are you ready for Mandatory Advising? Beginning summer quarter, all new students must have an Educational Plan in the Degree Audit system prior to their 3rd quarter registration. Attend this session to learn advising "nuts and bolts", explore advising resources, find answers to frequently asked advising questions, and learn how to create an educational plan.	All faculty	GW288
11-12	Social Science Department opening week meeting	All department ees	GWH 276
1-3	Math & Science Division Meeting	All division employees	Shuksan 145
1-3	Communication & Social Sciences Division Meeting	All division employees	GW386/388
1-3	Basic Skills and Adult Education Division Meeting	All division employees	GW166/168
1-3	Arts and Learning Resources Meeting	All division employees	WHI 352
1-3	Business and Workforce Ed Division Meeting	All division employees	GW 150
1-3	Health Sciences and Public Safety Division Meeting	All division employees	Index 171
TUESDAY 9/14
9-10	Respectful Workplace Training: This training is designed to help everyone understand and follow the college's policies and expectations regarding harassment. It will help lay the groundwork for new policies in the near future.	Any employee who has not attended earlier sessions	WH105
10 – 11 (repeated on 9/14 PM)	Introduction to Degree Audit: The Degree Audit system is a new, easy and helpful advising tool. During this session you will learn how to access and navigate the Degree Audit system, run a degree audit to evaluate a student's progress toward a degree/certificate, and use the Academic Planner module to develop an educational plan and record advisor notes.	All faculty	GW288
10-11	MyBest Meeting/Info Session: The MyBest project incorporates the IDEA evaluation and ties it into the faculty's vocational certification process. This will be facilitated by Sharon Buck & Stuart Barger.	All Prof-Tech faculty	GW 150
10 - 11:30	English Department Mtg	Department Members	Writing Ctr.
12-1:00	WFSE Lunch	Classified employees	Jackson 100
11:30-1:30	Faculty Union lunch and meeting	Faculty	GW 66/168
1:30-2:30	Open House with Refreshments: Drop in for conversation with the University Center staff and university partners for current information about university degree programs. Learn about transfer from EvCC associate degree programs - both technical and academic - to bachelor's degree programs right here in Snohomish County and right here on campus. Enjoy a Root Beer Float, too!	All interested employees	GW, University Center Lobby
2 - 3 (Repeated on 9/14 AM)	Introduction to Degree Audit: The Degree Audit system is a new, easy and helpful advising tool. During this session you will learn how to access and navigate the Degree Audit system, run a degree audit to evaluate a student's progress toward a degree/certificate, and use the Academic Planner module to develop an educational plan and record advisor notes.	All faculty	GW288
2-3	BWE Division Dept Chair Meeting	Department members	OLY 125
2-4	The Writing Center open house	All employees	Rainier 1 st floor
3:45-5:30	College in the High School Kickoff	Participants Only	MPR

TIME	EVENT	ATTENDEES	LOCATION
WEDNESDAY 9/15
10-11:30	Campus-Wide Welcome Event	All employees	Parks MPR
11:30-1	Campus Lunch (held where the Farmer's Market was; in Jackson if it's raining)	All employees	GW porch
1-2	New Teaching Labs for 10/11: An Information Session (Paul Marshall)	All employees	GW268
2-3:30	All Instruction Meeting	instruction employees	WH 105
THURSDAY 9/16
9-12:30	First Aid/CPR/AED class ~ Trainer: Larry Bock: PREREGISTRATION REQUIRED. Call Linda at ext 9016.	All employees	Oly 125
10 - 11:50	Critical Thinking Workshop: Integrating Critical Thinking into Your Courses ~ Presenters: Kamil Hamaoui & Rene Kratz The development of critical thinking is a core learning outcome of the college. In this workshop, participants will learn about the conceptualization of critical thinking developed by the Foundation for Critical Thinking (http://www.criticalthinking.org/index.cfm) in addition to specific strategies for integrating critical thinking into a course. Participants will be given two "Thinker's Guides" (i.e., booklets) published by the Foundation for Critical Thinking. Snacks and beverages provided.	All interested employees	GW 286
12- 1:30	Faculty Development Committee Lunch: Join your fellow EvCC full-time, associate, and part-time faculty for food and conversation.	Faculty	WH105
9 - noon OR 1 - 3	Writing Across Borders: Writing and Second Language Learners in Your Classroom Presenters: Visakan Ganeson, International Education Director, and students; Dennis Bennett, Assistant Director of the Writing Center at OSU; Wayne Robertson, English Faculty at Whatcom Community College. The number of second language learners on our campus continues to grow. This has a significant impact on our classroom dynamics and expectations. We will discuss who these students are, hear some of their stories, then view the film "Writing Across Borders" (http://cwl.oregonstate.edu/writing-across-borders), which challenges us to think about questions like "How does culture play out in writing?" or "How do we assess international student writing when we have to grade it alongside the writing of native speakers?" Discussion to follow with the film's writer/director and OSU's assistant director at the Center for Writing and Learning. Discipline-specific, smaller discussion groups to follow in the afternoon: 1-2pm Sciences/Business/Mathematics; 2-3pm Social Sciences/Humanities/Arts.	All interested employees	AM @ GW166 PM @ GW 270
2-3	Get a Running Start on Fall Quarter: Information about EvCC's Running Start program Ever wonder why the students look younger every quarter? EvCC's Running Start program has been quietly growing, and currently has more than 800 students, from all over Snohomish County and beyond. Karl Ritter, Coordinator of Running Start, will explain the program's admission requirements and explore strategies to help this student population be successful. Feel free to bring your questions, concerns and success stories.		GW166
2 - 3:30 (repeated on 9/13 AM)	Advising Nuts and Bolts: Are you ready for Mandatory Advising? Beginning summer quarter, all new students must have an Educational Plan in the Degree Audit system prior to their 3rd quarter registration. Attend this session to learn advising "nuts and bolts", explore advising resources, find answers to frequently asked advising questions, and learn how to create an educational plan.		GW288
2-3	BUS/ECON/ACCT Department Meeting facilitated by Lynne Munoz		OLY 126
FRIDAY 9/17
9-10	Respectful Workplace Training: This training is designed to help everyone understand and follow the college's policies and expectations regarding harassment. It will help lay the groundwork for new policies in the near future.	Any employee who has not attended earlier sessions	WH105