

Government Internet Resources

1. U.S. Census Bureau
<http://www.census.gov/>
Population, Social & Economic statistics etc. for the U.S., states, regions, cities.
2. NOAA (national oceanic & atmospheric administration)
<http://www.noaa.gov/>
Weather, climate and much more
3. White House
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/>
Tour the Whitehouse and meet the president, vice-president, and first lady.
4. FedStats (federal statistics from 80 agencies of the U.S. government)
<http://www.fedstats.gov/>
5. Washington State information sources
<http://www.access.wa.gov/>
Acclaimed as one of the best of the state government web sites.
6. Federal Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, CO
<http://www.pueblo.gsa.gov/>
Free & inexpensive consumer pamphlets and brochures on a whole range of topics.
7. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
<http://www.cdc.gov/>
Health, health prevention, and health care statistics for the U.S.
8. National Institute of Standards and Technology
<http://www.nist.gov/>
Scientific and technical data, including weights, measures and the atomic clock.
9. Internal Revenue Service (IRS)
<http://www.irs.gov/>
Tax forms and advice
10. Catalog of U.S. Government Publications
<http://www.gpoaccess.gov/cgp/index.html>
Searchable list of government publications; also locates government documents depository libraries in each state.

