

Celebrate international education and exchange worldwide!

Everett Community College is celebrating International Education Week from November 14 – 18, 2011, with dance, fashion, lectures, and more. All events are free and open to the public with funding provided by Global Education Initiatives.

Date	Event & Short Description	Time & Place
Tues, 11/15	Panel: Engaging Globally 10 international visitors from 10 different countries share their perspectives on the value and necessity of global education and engagement. This event is in partnership with the International Visitor Program of the World Affairs Council.	12:20pm-1:20pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Tues, 11/15	Travelogue: India Come learn about the unique festivals and customs of different regions of India. This event is offered in conjunction with the EvCC Humanities Center.	1:30pm-2:30pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Wed, 11/16	Panel: Why Study Abroad? Each of our panelists left his or her home country to study and/or work abroad in countries ranging from Japan to Ghana and even to the USA. Find out why and learn how their time abroad has impacted them. There will be a short Q&A at the end.	10am-11am @ Jackson Conference Center
Wed, 11/16	International Festival If the strangest thing you've ever eaten is Velveeta, come to the International Festival and take a trip around the world! Eat some exotic snacks, take a photo wearing traditional clothes from another country, or get a henna tattoo while you learn about the different customs, cultures, languages, and even native plant usage of various countries.	11am-2pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Wed, 11/16	World Dance Visit India/Pakistan, Indonesia, and Vietnam through a performance of traditional dances with a tribute to dance in the USA at the end.	12:15pm-12:30pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Wed, 11/16	International Traditional Fashion Show Learn about traditional clothing from various countries at the IT Fashion show.	12:30pm-1pm @ Jackson Conference Center

Wed, 11/16	Dance: Huayin Performing Arts Group See some classical Chinese dance, including regional dances from Tibet and Xinjiang.	1pm -1:30pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Wed, 11/16	Lecture: Foundations of Manga/Anime in Japanese Art Join art historian Keith Takechi as he explores the roots of Japanese Manga and Anime.	2pm-3pm @ Jackson Conference Center
Thurs, 11/17	Cooking Demonstration: Snacks of Japan, Pakistan/India, and Indonesia Love to eat but don't know how to cook? Come by and learn to make some simple snacks: sushi chirashi (Japan), pakorays (India/Pakistan), and gado gado (Indonesia).	2pm-3:30pm @ NBI

During this week, the EvCC Parks Café will also be featuring international cuisine, highlighting a different country each day, so stop by and try something new.

For more information on IEW activities, please contact Phebe Shen at pshen@everettcc.edu or Kathleen Koss at kkoss@everettcc.edu.

To learn more about International Education Week, which is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education to focus on the benefits of international education and exchange, please go to <http://iew.state.gov/>