In ANGEL, if you select a Discussion Forum from the left hand side of the page, you may not be able to read your own posts – or posts you have previously read in ANGEL.

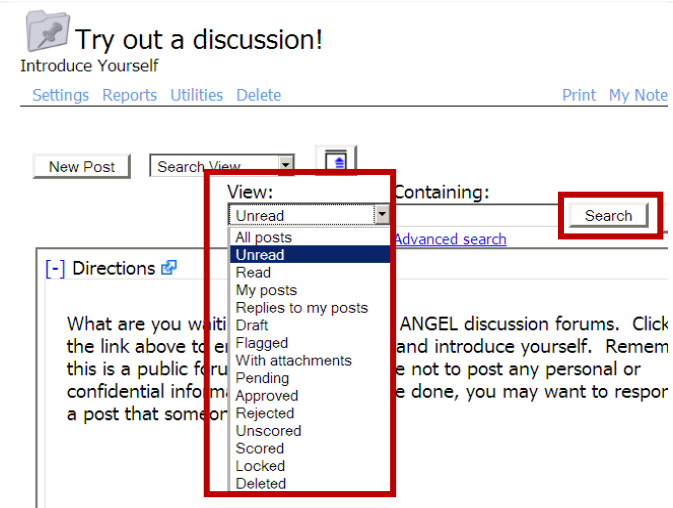

When accessing the discussion board from the left hand menu, the default setting for the discussion is set to search for unread posts only.

If you want to view all posts, you need to change the search type to All Posts from the View: dropdown and click Search

Or

You can access the discussion via the Lessons Tab (may be named different depending on the course) from the top of the page
