

Philosophy

Associate in Arts & Sciences – Direct Transfer (DTA)

GENERAL INFORMATION

To study Philosophy is to pursue the truth. It is a discipline which asks “why?” and probes for deeper answers. It requires an open mind and a desire to evaluate argumentation for its reasonableness. Philosophical investigation applies to every other discipline, from art to science, so whatever you plan to major in, Philosophy may be of interest to you.

PLANNING YOUR STUDIES

Typically, students interested in Philosophy pursue their study through the bachelor’s degree level, and then through the master’s level. You can enjoy the benefits of smaller classes (and lower tuition) by beginning your college study at a community college and then transferring to a university.

At EvCC, students interested in Philosophy should pursue the Associate in Arts and Sciences - DTA. This degree meets statewide guidelines for smooth transfer to most of Washington's colleges and universities, and several in Oregon. With this degree, you will have completed most or all of the lower division, general education requirements typically required within a bachelor's degree. The complete description of this degree program, with a checklist, is provided in the Associate in Arts and Sciences Direct Transfer Guide. A sample checklist is provided on the reverse side.

Any Philosophy course would be helpful to your pursuit of a Bachelor's degree. All Philosophy courses (other than PHIL& 120, Symbolic Logic) recommend readiness for college-level composition (ENGL& 101) prior to enrollment. For further clarification, advisors can be helpful to you; see the Program Advisor section on this page.

CAREER OPTIONS

Those with a degree in Philosophy can find rewarding careers in social and community service, research, and communications, and in nonprofit organizations, museums, libraries and communications. A degree in Philosophy is also useful to those who choose to enter the clergy or go into counseling, teaching, law, business or writing. Additional training may be necessary in some of these areas, but an undergraduate degree in Philosophy provides a sound foundation for each of these careers. Check with the Philosophy program advisor listed below or the Counseling, Advising & Career Center, Third Floor, Parks, for additional information on career options and considerations.

This checklist refers to requirements listed in the curriculum guide titled "Associate in Arts and Sciences – DTA", which lists all the courses which are approved for the various categories of requirements.
